THE RED SOX MANAGER

RICHARD H. (DICK) WILLIAMS. Born: May 7, 1929, at St. Louis, Mo. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 190 lbs. Green eyes, Brown hair. Bats and throws: Right. Home: Palm Beach Isles, Fla. Married Norma Marie Mussato, Oct. 23, 1954. Children: Kathi Jo, 11 years; Ricky, 10 years; Marc, 3 years. Acquired by Red Sox December, 1962, from Houston for outfielder Carroll Hardy.

Made his major league managing debut a smashing success by bringing in the longest shot in baseball history. Took a club which led the league in losses one year all the way to the American League pennant and the seventh game of the World Series the very next year. The Red Sox were a 100 to 1 chance but through maturing of ball players, judicious trades and most importantly, managing which got the most out of each man, Boston surprised the baseball world.

Moved up to the major leagues after winning two consecutive Governor's Cups with the Toronto Maple Leafs, where many of the present young Red Sox hopefuls came under his direction. At 38 he is the youngest manager in the American League and the second youngest in the major leagues (only Dave Bristol of Cincinnati being younger).

He played every position except pitcher and catcher during his long career as a player stretching from 1947 through 1964. An arm injury early in his major league career with Brooklyn hampered his throwing so he decided his best chance to stay in the big time was by being versatile. As a result he played for Brooklyn, Baltimore, Kansas City, Cleveland and the Red Sox in the major leagues. Finishing his career with the Red Sox in 1963 and 1964, he was the club's top pinch hitter.

He starred in football, basketball and baseball at Pasadena Junior College High and was All State in baseball before signing with the Dodgers. In recent off-seasons he has broken the bank on a couple of nationally shown TV quiz shows.

THE RED SOX COACHING STAFF

One of the Red Sox all-time favorite players, he has worked as a special scout and instructor in the Red Sox farm system for the past 10 years, so he knows practically every one of the young Red Sox prospects intimately.

He was the regular Red Sox second baseman from 1937 through 1951, with 1945 out for military service, and seven times was the American League All Star second baseman. His lifetime batting average was in the high 280's and for a long time he held the major league record for handling 404 chances without an error.

Joins Dick Williams' staff this year as pitching coach after being a teammate and managing rival of Williams. Primarily a catcher and outfielder, he played on several major league teams before concluding his career with the Orioles as player-coach and a teammate of Williams in 1962. A player-coach with the Cardinals the previous two years, Johnson then directed Rochester in the Baltimore farm system in 1963, 64 and 65, winning the Governor's Cup in 1964.

He and Williams managed against each other in 1965, Williams and Toronto winning the Governor's Cup that year. In 1966 Johnson directed Elmira to the Eastern League championship, finishing ahead of Pittsfield, managed by Eddie Popowski.

He was the bullpen coach in 1963 and 1964 under Johnny Pesky, and he had been managing in the Detroit Tigers farm system for two years before rejoining the Sox last year. Previously he had managed for several years for the Tigers, so like the other Red Sox coaches he has had long experience handling youngsters. He caught six seasons for Cincinnati and the Philadelphia Phillies, one year at Detroit and was with the former Boston Braves briefly in 1949 . . . he has two children.

Came up to the Red Sox last season after spending 30 years in the Red Sox organization as player, scout and manager. Like Bobby Doerr, he's intimately acquainted with most of the Red Sox personnel who played for him in the minor leagues. He directed the Pittsfield Red Sox to the 1965 Eastern League pennant, and last winter was honored by the Boston Baseball Writers with their annual "Good Guy" Award. He has been the manager of the Red Sox team in the Florida Instructional League for the past several years.

"Pop," the third base coach, has five children.

PLAYER RECORDS

ADAIR, Kenneth Jerry

INFIELDER

JERRY

Born: December 17, 1936, Tulsa, Okla. Ht.: 6'1"; Wt.: 185 lbs; Blue eyes, Blond hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Sand Springs, Oklahoma. Acquired: from Chicago White Sox, June 3, 1967, for Don McMahon and Rob Snow.

Many considered this veteran infielder one of the major reasons for the Red Sox' success. He was obtained from the White Sox on June 3 of '67. The Red Sox had a 22-21 record on that day. They were 70-49 afterward.

Signed out of Oklahoma State University, Adair was in the Baltimore organization from 1958 until 1966, when he was traded to Chicago. His acquisition by the Red Sox for Don McMahon and Rob Snow looked better and better as the season progressed as Jerry gained a reputation for coming through with the "big" hit at the right time. His eighth inning home run to beat California, 9-8, on Aug. 20 after the Sox trailed 8-0 was one of the key hits of the entire season. Adair, who works for a bank in the off-season, is married and has four children.

ALVARADO, Luis

INFIELDER

LUIS

Born: January 15, 1949, LaJas, Puerto Rico; Ht.: 5'9"; Wt.: 162 lbs.; Brown eyes, Black hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: LaJas, P.R. Acquired: Signed by Scout Pedro Vasquez, October 20, 1966.

A 19-year-old shortstop, Alvarado hit .222 at Waterloo in 1967, his first year in organized baseball. Luis had good production for a shortstop with eight home runs, 43 runs batted in and 59 runs scored in just 118 games. A native of Puerto Rico, the right-handed batter is a real good glove man. He has already been compared with the top-fielding major leaguers. Alvarado is single.

Born: July 9, 1943, Los Angeles, Cal.; Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 195 lbs.; Green eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Torrance, Cal. Acquired: Signed by scout Joe Stephenson from high school, Dec. 1, 1961.

Andrews appears to be the solid second baseman the Red Sox have been looking for through the years. Mike fitted beautifully into the Boston picture as a rookie last year. He batted .263 in 142 games and was second to Yastrzemski in runs scored with 79. He was selected, along with Reggie Smith, Red Sox Rookie of the Year.

Andrews made the switch from shortstop to second the previous year at Toronto under Dick Williams. A three-sport star at South Torrance (Calif.) High, he was also an All-American Junior College end at El Camino College before signing with the Red Sox. Mike is married and has a son and daughter.

BELL, GaryPITCHER*GARY

Born. Nov. 17, 1936, San Antonio, Tex. Ht.: 6'1"; Wt.: 202 lbs. Bats and Throws: Right. Blue eyes, Brown hair; Home: Boston, Mass. Acquired: June 4, 1967 from Cleveland Indians in trade for Don Demeter and Tony Horton.

Bell was obtained the day after Adair and was a great addition to the starting rotation. Gary, who was in his 10th year with the Indians before he was swapped for Don Demeter and Tony Horton, had a 12-8 record with Boston and a creditable 3.16 earned run average.

The 31-year-old right-hander played football, basketball and golf besides baseball in high school. He was captain of the football and basketball teams and was selected All-District in the latter sport. He played basketball again in his one year at San Antonio Junior College. Signed by Cleveland in 1954. Gary is married.

BRANDON, Darrell G.PITCHER*BUCKY

Born: July 8, 1940, Nacogdoches, Tex. Ht.: 6'2"; Wt.: 210. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Houston, Tex. Acquired: From Houston club in deal for Jack Lamabe, in September, 1965.

If "Bucky" can regain the form he displayed in the latter half of his rookie season two years ago, he could become a welcome addition to the starters. Brandon was 8-8 with a 3.30 ERA in 1966 but slipped to 5-11 and 4.16 last year.

Originally signed as an outfielder, he was converted to a pitcher by the Cardinals and became an All Star in the California League in 1962 and Carolina League in 1963. Darrell, who starred in three sports at Nacogdoches (Tex.) High School, is married.

BRETT, Kenneth A.PITCHER*KEMER

Born: Sept. 18, 1948, Brooklyn, N. Y. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 190 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: El Segundo, Cal. Acquired: Signed by scout Joe Stephenson, June 29, 1966.

A six-month military duty hitch that forced him to miss spring training could be the only thing preventing Brett from becoming an important member of the Red Sox pitching staff this season. Regarded as the lefty long sought by the club, 19-year-old "Kemer" is a strong thrower. A good start at Louisville this year could bring him to the parent club during the season.

Last year was his first in professional ball and he spent it with three clubs. He compiled a 2.25 ERA with Winston-Salem and then an impressive 1.80, 10-7 mark at Pittsfield. He struck out 219 men in 189 innings with the two clubs. Ken says his biggest sports thrill so far was winning the Babe Ruth National Championship in 1964. Single.

Born: Jan. 7, 1945, Revere, Mass. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 185 lbs. Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Swampscott, Mass. Acquired: Signed by Neil Mahoney and Milt Bolling, Sept. 10, 1962.

"Conig" was having the best of his four seasons with the Sox last year until Jack Hamilton's pitch kayoed him for the remainder of the campaign on Aug. 18. Tony had 20 home runs up to this time, one of them a dramatic two-run shot into the Fenway Park net with two out in the bottom of the eleventh to beat Chicago, 2-1, June 15. He also tied a game with California with a ninth inning homer.

Boston out-bid 14 other major league teams to obtain the services of the Most Valuable Player in football, basketball and, most importantly, baseball at St. Mary's High in Lynn, Mass. One of the more eligible bachelors around, Tony makes even more of a hit with the girls with his rock and roll singing.

Born: Aug. 15, 1947, Revere, Mass. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 175 lbs. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Swampscott, Mass. Acquired: Signed by Scout Milt Bolling after being selected as the Red Sox number one choice in the first free agent draft, June, 1965.

Billy, Tony's younger brother, received his second look at the Red Sox major league training camp at Winter Haven, Fla. Bill has been in the minors three years since being selected Boston's number one choice in the first free agent draft, June, 1965. He batted .340 in the winter instructional league last fall.

A 20-year-old, Billy, a former football and baseball hero at Swampscott (Mass.) High, could some day be playing along side his brother in the Red Sox outfield. Like Tony, he is single and turned down many attractive college offers to sign with the Red Sox.

CULP, Raymond Leonard, Jr.PITCHER*RAY

Born: August 6, 1941, Elgin, Tex. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 200 lbs.; Blue eyes, Brown hair; Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Austin, Tex. Acquired: November 30, 1967, from the Chicago Cubs for cash and minor league outfielder Bill Schlesinger.

Entering his 10th year of pro baseball, Culp is still only 26 and is looking to fulfill the capabilities he showed in his rookie season with the Phillies. That year, 1963, he had a 14-11 record, 2.97 earned run average and 10 complete games and was chosen to the National League All-Star team.

Culp, acquired from the Cubs after a mediocre 8-1, 3.88 season, could help to fill the slight vacuum behind Jim Lonborg in the starting rotation. Ray, a right-hander, is married and has two children and still lives in his home town of Austin, Tex., where he participated in three sports at Austin High.

ELLSWORTH, Richard ClarkPITCHER*DICK

Born: March 22, 1940, Lusk, Wyoming. Ht.: 6'4"; Wt.: 195 lbs. Brown eyes and hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: Fresno, Calif. Acquired: from Philadelphia Phillies, along with Gene Oliver, for Mike Ryan and cash.

Like Culp, Ellsworth is a veteran National Leaguer who has shown the ability to be one of the best. His tremendous 22-10 record and 2.10 earned run average for the Cubs in 1963 indicated the potential that is in this Wyoming native's left arm. If Dick can come anywhere near those figures for the Red Sox, his acquisition will be a big boost in hopes for a second straight American League pennant.

Ellsworth has been in pro ball since being signed out of Fresno (Calif.) City College by the Cubs in 1958 for a reported $50,000 bonus. Dick spent seven full years with Chicago before being traded to the Phillies in December of 1966 for, ironically, Ray Culp. He is married and still living in Fresno.

Born: Feb. 21, 1943. New York City. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 210 lbs. Brown eyes, Black hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: New York City, N. Y. Acquired: Drafted from Minn. Twins in 1962.

The former "Minor League Player of the Year" of 1965 could be ready to blossom into a top-notch major leaguer. Platooned at third with Jerry Adair and Dalton Jones last year, Joe should now be ready to make the position his for many years to come. His 1966 & 67 figures — 167 runs scored, 31 home runs and a .257 batting average — indicate it won't be long before he achieves his '65 Toronto exploits when he was the International League's "Rookie of the Year" and "Most Valuable Player."

Signed first by Minnesota, he was tried unsuccessfully at catcher and first. The Red Sox have used him briefly at these two positions as well as shortstop but most of his time has been as a third baseman. Joe still lives in New York, where he excelled at Evander Childs High, with his wife and daughter.

GIBSON, John RussellCATCHER*RUSS/GIBBY

Born: May 6, 1939, Fall River, Mass. Ht.: 6'1"; Wt.: 195 lbs. Hazel eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Baldwin Park, Cal. Acquired: Scouted by Joe Dugan and signed by Neil Mahoney in June, 1957 after graduating from Durfee High School in Fall River.

"Gibby" remained with the team all last year, his first try at the majors after 10 minor league seasons. Although he batted nowhere near his '66 Toronto figure which earned him an All-Star selection, he is considered a very knowledgeable catcher and a good defensive man behind the plate. He threw out the fleet Bert Campaneris twice in one game last year.

A great athlete at Durfee High in Fall River, Russ will get much more chance to show what he can do as the two men he competed with last year, Bob Tillman and Mike Ryan — have been traded. He is married and spent this past winter learning his father-in-law's business in California.

The "Hawk" played with three clubs last year, receiving what he calls the "biggest break of my life" when he went from the last place Athletics to the first place Red Sox in August. His much-publicized run-in with K.C. owner Charlie Finley prompted his outright release from that organization and made the strong first baseman-outfielder available to the Red Sox.

A tremendous all-around athlete, he was an All Star in every sport but football at Benedictine Military School. He was a high school All-American in basketball and is one of the best golfers in professional baseball. Married and the father of three.

 From New York Yankees, August 3, 1967, for cash and minor league players.

The former American League Most Valuable Player was coaxed back for a 14th major league season. Ellie, obtained from the Yankees in August, lends championship experience and a great deal of "savvy" to a young ball team. This is the main reason he was picked up but he still managed a key two-run single in the fifth game of the World Series as well as two game-winning hits in the pennant drive.

A lifetime .276 hitter, he played on nine New York pennant-winning teams, the highlight of which was winning the '63 MVP award. He played football, basketball, baseball and track in high school and, oddly enough, was All-State in football and basketball but not baseball. He is married and has three children.

One of the best pinch hitters in the business. Jones, who was used in spots at second and third last season, hit .289, his best average in four years with the Red Sox. He hit three home runs, one of them in the 10th inning to beat Detroit, 6-5, Sept. 18. Only a history of being a little weak in the field has prevented Jones from being a regular.

He was an All-State selection in both baseball and basketball at Istrouma High in Baton Rouge. His father Clino and a great-uncle, Leroy Jones, played professional baseball. Ted Williams assisted in his signing. Married and has a son.

LAHOUD, Joseph M., Jr.OUTFIELDER*JOE

Born: April 14, 1948, Danbury, Conn. Ht.: 6'1"; Wt.: 198 lbs. Brown hair, Brown eyes. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: Danbury, Conn. Acquired: Signed by Scout "Bots" Nekola, September, 1965.

Highly regarded young prospect. Much is expected of this left-handed batter, who hit .287 in his second year at Winston-Salem. He had 16 homers and 62 RBIs. A Connecticut native, he played baseball, basketball and soccer at Henry Abbott Tech, selected All-State in basketball. He played baseball and basketball again in his one year at New Haven College before he was signed by the Red Sox.

LANDIS, William H.PITCHER*BILL

Born: October 8, 1942, Hanford, Cal. Ht.: 6'1"; Wt.: 180 lbs. Blue eyes, Blond hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: Hanford, Cal. Acquired: Drafted from Vancouver (Kansas City) of Pacific Coast League, Nov. 29, 1966.

Hard-throwing lefty saw limited action in 1967 but could be in for more duty this season. He pitched only 26 innings but struck out 23 men, the most important one being veteran Eddie Matthews on Sept. 19. Bill came on just to face the left-handed hitter with two on and one out in the ninth inning of a crucial game with the Tigers. Boston won, 4-2.

He starred in baseball, football and wrestling at Hanford High before attending Coalinga Junior College, where he had the distinction of making All-Central California as a first team pitcher and second team outfielder. He's married and has a son.

LONBORG, James R.PITCHER*JIM

Born: April 16, 1943, Santa Maria, Cal. Ht.: 6'5"; Wt.: 200 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: San Luis Obispo, Cal. Acquired: Signed by Scout Danny Doyle, Aug. 14, 1963.

Jim appeared in six fewer games last year than he did the year before but that was about the only department the American League Cy Young Award winner went down in. "Lonnie" (22-9) became Boston's first 20-game winner since Bill Monbouquette in 1963 and only second in 14 years. There wasn't a better pitcher in baseball than Lonborg, who led the league in wins and strikeouts. His 246 whiffs are second only to Smoky Joe Wood in Red Sox history.

Jim's competitiveness made him the toughest hurler in the League. Not only did he win all the big ones, especially the season-ending 5-3 decision over the Twins, but he aided the offense in at least five of his 22 victories. He beat Kansas City with an eighth-inning triple Sept. 12 and started the winning five-run rally against Minnesota on pennant-winning day with a bunt single.

He pitched one of the best games ever seen in the World Series, shutting out the Cardinals on one hit in the second game. He had a perfect game for 6 $\frac{1}{3}$ innings and a no-hitter for 7 $\frac{2}{3}$. He came back with a three-hitter against the Cards for just four hits in 18 innings, the lowest back-to-back hit total in World Series history.

Signed after his junior year at Stanford, he chose baseball over medicine but did get his degree in biology in 1966. Jim was the baseball MVP at Stanford and pitched in the summer Basin League. He is still single.

LYLE, Albert W.PITCHER*SPARKY

The top lefty reliever on the staff after coming up from Toronto at the beginning of July. "Sparky" was more effective than anyone had hoped the rookie would be. His 2.30 earned run average was the lowest on the staff. He walked just 14 and struck out 42 in 43 innings, virtually a one-an-inning average that was one of the best in the majors.

Signed in 1963 by the Orioles, the sturdy hurler was drafted by the Red Sox in 1964. He played football and basketball at Reynoldsville (Pa.) High School. But the school had no baseball team so Sparky had to gain recognition from playing semi-pro ball. The Orioles were particularly impressed when he struck out 31 in one 17-inning contest. Married.

Born: February 19, 1939, Jay, Fla. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 180 lbs. Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Houston, Texas. Acquired: As part of the Bill Monbouquette trade in 1965.

A veteran of 11 minor league seasons. Moore was in the Tigers' organization before the Red Sox obtained him. A 29-year-old right-handed hitter, Jackie makes his home in Houston. He played at Toronto last year, where he made just four errors behind the plate in 100 games for a solid .994 fielding average.

Born: Sept. 5, 1943, San Diego, Calif. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 200 lbs. Brown eyes, Black hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: San Diego, Calif. Acquired: Signed as he finished high school by Scout Ray Boone, June 16, 1961.

Dave, who came up to the Red Sox at the age of 19, still hasn't lived up to the promise showed when he pitched a near-perfect no-hitter against Cleveland on Sept. 16, 1965. He was sent down for the first time since making the parent club in 1963 but was brought back late in the season after doing well at Toronto. His five wins over the last two months helped the cause considerably, however, and it is hoped he is back on the beam.

He jumped from high school to the Class AA Eastern League and one year later was in Seattle in Triple A baseball. He is a graduate of Herbert Hoover High School in San Diego, which also sent Ted Williams and Ray Boone, who scouted him, to the majors. Dave is married and has a son.

MOSES, Gerald B.CATCHER*GERRY

This rugged Mississippian looks more and more like the Red Sox catcher of the future. Just 21, he was with Pittsfield the past two years and batted over .250 and had more than 50 RBI's both seasons. Gerry corrected a slight throwing problem he had last year and thinks he is ready to step in and do a major league job. He hit his first major league homer at the age of 18 in a brief 1965 trial with the Sox.

Moses turned down several football scholarship offers to sign with the Red Sox. He also played basketball and baseball in high school. Still holds a Little League record of hitting 13 home runs in two games. Single.

Getting his first crack at the majors since being signed by Joe Stevenson in 1963. O'Brien, who can play both second and third, was the All-Star second baseman at Toronto last year. Drafted away by Kansas City, the Red Sox got his contract back in a minor league deal in 1966, when he hit over .300 for both the A's Modesto and the Red Sox' Winston-Salem. He hit .297 in Winter League ball and is considered a good major league prospect.

Born: March 22, 1935, Moline, Ill. Ht.: 6'2". Wt.: 215 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and throws: Right. Home: Rock Island, Ill. Acquired: from Philadelphia Phillies, along with Dick Ellsworth, Dec. 15, 1967, for Mike Ryan and cash.

This veteran utility man should provide good bench strength for the Red Sox this year. He hasn't been used as much the past two years with the Phillies and Braves as he did in 1965 when he hit .270 and 21 home runs, one of six Braves players to hit 20 or more homers that season. Gene can catch, play first and the outfield.

Oliver came up with the Cardinals in 1959 and, after a couple of trips back to the minors, was traded with pitcher Bob Sadowski to the Milwaukee Braves for Lou Burdette, June 15, 1963. Gene, who attended Northwestern University, is married.

PETROCELLI, AmericoSHORTSTOP*RICO

Born: June 27, 1943, Brooklyn, N. Y. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 175 lbs. Brown eyes and hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Peabody, Mass. Acquired: Signed by Scout Bots Nekola, July 2, 1961.

Rico was the All-Star shortstop last season, just his third with the club. He had a great first half, hitting .296 when he was hit by a pitched ball on June 23 and was lost for the best part of a month. His 17 home runs and 66 RBIs paced the American League shortstops and his .259 batting average was second only to the Angels' Jim Fregosi.

His batting certainly didn't overshadow his fielding, however. Petro fielded brilliantly all season. His rifle-like arm was tremendously consistent, quite different from the 1965 season when elbow problems hampered his throwing.

An All-Scholastic in both basketball and baseball at Sheepshead Bay (N.Y.) High School. He is an off-season oil salesman in Massachusetts. Rico is married with three children, including twin boys.

Billy started off in spectacular fashion in 1967, missing by one out of tossing a no-hitter against the Yankees in his major league debut. It appeared he had his no-hitter when Carl Yastrzemski made a fantastic catch off Tom Tresh leading off the ninth but Elston Howard laced a two-out single to right-center and Rohr had to settle for a one-hitter. He followed it with another complete game against New York but had his troubles afterward and was sent back to Toronto.

He was drafted from the Pirates, even though he did not officially pitch in 1963 in their farm system. The Red Sox had been interested in him when he was the Most Valuable Player in the San Gabriel Valley League in high school. Billy was married in February.

SANDY

Born: Aug. 15, 1940, Juana Diaz, Puerto Rico. Ht.: 6'2"; Wt.: 190 lbs. Bats and Throws: Right. Home Juana Diaz, Puerto Rico. Acquired: Contract purchased from Vancouver club of Kansas City farm system, Sept. 20, 1965.

He had a tremendous year in '67, leading the league in winning percentage (.750) with his 12-4 record. He went almost three full months at the close of the season without a loss. Sandy lost his last game to California in relief on July 5 and finished with eight straight victories. They weren't pushover teams either, as he had three wins over Baltimore, two over Detroit, and one against California, Chicago and Minnesota.

Jose, who started the first game of the World Series and hit a home run in a 2-1 loss to Bob Gibson, has been with the Red Sox only two years and already has 24 wins.

An extremely fast worker, injuries and illness had delayed his earlier progress in the Kansas City system. He had impressed in Kansas City training camps in 1963 and 1964, but an appendicitis attack sidelined him in 1963 and a severely sprained ankle set him back in 1964.

Starred in baseball and basketball at Juana Diaz High School and attended Santa Maria Catholic University in his native land before signing. Married and has a son.

A fastball pitcher with good potential, Schaeffer was a high draft selection in the 1965 mid-winter draft. Reports say his ball moves well and all he needs is experience. He has pitched very well for both Waterloo and Winston-Salem.

He was All-League in baseball, basketball and football at Grover Cleveland High (Reseda, Calif.). Mark attended Pierce Junior College for one-half year before signing.

Born: Mar. 23, 1944, Greenville, Miss. Ht.: 6'2"; Wt.: 220 lbs. Black eyes, Black hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Greenville, Miss. Acquired: Signed by scout Ed Scott, with an assist from Milt Bolling, May, 1964.

Scotty played a vital role in the Red Sox success. He sacrificed going for the home run, his "taters," and improved his average 58 points by going with the pitch. He did it so well, in fact, that his .303 mark placed fourth in the American League. He still managed to hit 19 homers, third highest on the club. He also had 82 RBIs.

George also saved many a ball game with his fantastic fielding around first. The circuit's Golden Glover at his position, he not only stopped many a ball ticketed past him but also saved many an error by his infield mates with sweeping catches.

The season before joining the Red Sox he won the Eastern League batting title, home run championship, RBI title and MVP nomination. Scotty, whose smoothness around the bag reminds many people of Vic Power, starred in football, basketball and baseball at Coleman High in Greenville, Miss. He was just married this January.

SIEBERN, Norman LeroyINFIELDER*NORM

Born: July 26, 1933, St. Louis, Mo. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 205 lbs. Hazel eyes, Auburn hair. Bats: Left. Throws: Right. Home: Independence, Mo. Acquired: on waivers from San Francisco Giants, July 15, 1967.

Norm was picked up on waivers from the Giants last year for left-handed pinch hitting strength. A 17-year veteran of professional baseball, he filled in well, coming up with a clutch three-run triple to aid a 12-11 decision over the Angels on Aug. 19. This contributed to a vital four-game sweep.

A lifetime .273 hitter, he is a former Minor League Player of the Year ('57), Gold Glove Award winner for left field ('58) and a Sporting News All-Star ('62). Married, with three children, Norm attended Southwest Missouri State for two years.

Spriggs will be the fastest man on the team, according to Manager Dick Williams, who thought highly of him and suggested the club draft him from Pittsburgh, where he's had a couple of brief trials. He is a left-handed hitter who spent two years in the Army after graduating from Bates High in McKendree, Md. He had an excellent year at Columbus in 1966, hitting 15 homers and scoring 91 runs along with batting an even .300.

Born: April 2, 1945, Shreveport, La. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 185 lbs. Brown eyes, Black hair. Bats: Switch; Throws: Right. Home: Norwood, Mass. Acquired: Drafted from Minnesota Twins farm system, Nov. 1963.

Co-winner, along with Mike Andrews, of the Red Sox Rookie of the Year award. Reggie batted over .270 the last half of the season after a slow start. Smith, who won the International League batting crown at Toronto in '66, had good production for a first year man with 78 runs and 61 RBIs to go along with his 15 homers.

His switch hitting, running — he led the club in stolen bases — strong arm and fielding make him set to be the team's center fielder for quite some time. Reggie batted .250 and had a pair of home runs in his first World Series.

He was All-League in football and basketball at Centennial High and MVP in baseball before signing with the Twins in June, 1963.

STANGE, Albert LeePITCHER*LEE

Born: Oct. 27, 1936, Chicago, Ill. Ht.: 5'10"; Wt.: 170 lbs. Blue eyes, Blond hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home St. Louis Park, Minn. Acquired: By trade with Cleveland along with Pitcher Don McMahon for Pitcher Dick Radatz, June 2, 1966.

"The Stinger" had the lowest earned run average of all the starters this past season with a 2.77. This placed him 11th in the league, the only Red Sox pitcher in the first 15. He seemed to be plagued by a lack of offensive support when he pitched, resulting in his losing (8-10) record.

Lee walked just 32 men, second among the first 15 hurlers only to the Twins' Jim Merritt. This was in 182 innings for an average of 1½ per 9-inning game.

He was All-State in baseball and All Chicago in basketball at Proviso Township High, also played football before attending Drake University. He played football and basketball there before signing with the Twins.

STANGE (continued)

In September, 1964, he tied a major league record by striking out four Washington Senators in one inning. He is an excellent bowler. Married and has a son.

STEPHENSON, Jerry JosephPITCHER*JERRY

Jerry might "arrive" as a major league pitcher this season. Still just 24, he has already pitched part of four seasons with Boston and had his best season last year. Splitting it between Toronto and Boston, he was 3-1 with a commendable 3.83 ERA with the parent club.

He starred at Anaheim High and was scouted by all major league clubs before his dad, who has half a dozen of his signees playing in the majors, landed him for the Red Sox. Jerry is married.

TARTABULL, Jose (Milages)OUTFIELDER*JOSE

Born: Nov. 27, 1938, Cienfuegos, Las Villas, Cuba. Ht.: 5'11"; Wt.: 165 lbs. Brown eyes, Black hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: Caracas, Venezuela. Acquired: Came from Kansas City in three-for-three trade along with Pitchers John Wyatt and Roland Sheldon for Pitchers Ken Sanders and Guido Grilli and outfielder Jim Grosger, June 14, 1966.

Little Jose, a speedster, played only sparingly last season but still was involved in some crucial plays. His two-run pinch hit single with the bases loaded in the bottom of the 15th inning brought in two runs and lifted the Red Sox to an 11-10 victory over Kansas City on April 29. And no Boston fan will forget his throw to the plate, after catching a fly ball, that cut down Ken Berry trying to score from third with two out in the ninth and preserving a 4-3 win over the White Sox on August 27.

Originally the property of the San Francisco Giants, who signed him when he was attending San Lorenzo University in Cuba, he was traded to Kansas City in December, 1961. Married.

THOMAS, George Edward, Jr. OUTFIELDER GEORGE

Born: Nov. 29, 1937, Minneapolis, Minn. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 190 lbs. Hazel eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Farmington, Mich. Acquired: from Detroit Tigers with George Smith for Bill Monbouquette, October, 1965.

One of the more likeable ball players, George has been a Red Sox utility man for two years now. He not only plays first and the outfield but also, for the second successive year, made an appearance behind the plate. His willingness and reputation for being a comic help create an excellent attitude on the team.

Originally signed with Detroit after his sophomore year at the University of Minnesota, where he played basketball and baseball. He was a three-sport star at Bloomington (Minn.) High before that. George is married and has a daughter.

WASHINGTON, Ivy, Jr. PITCHER IVY

A good curve and fastball make him a promising prospect. He has compiled a 20-12 record in his two years in the Red Sox organization and has 14 complete games. Signed by Boston in 1965, he was drafted away by Cincinnati and then claimed back when the Reds didn't protect him. He did very well in the Florida Instructional League. Married, with a son, Ivy was an All-State basketball player in high school.

WASLEWSKI, Gary L. PITCHER WAS Born: July 21, 1941, Meriden, Conn. Ht.: 6'4"; Wt.: 195 lbs. Brown eyes, Black hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Peabody, Mass. Acquired: Drafted by Red Sox Seattle affiliate from Asheville of Pittsburgh organization, December, 1964.

Gary had his troubles finishing games for Boston last year but certainly was not overpowered, as his 3.21 earned run average would validate. He was also 5-6 with Toronto, with a tremendous 2.16 ERA, after a solid 18-11 season there under Dick Williams in '66.

A two-run homer served up by John Wyatt deprived "Was" of a much-deserved victory in the sixth game of the World Series. He started and went out in the sixth inning with a 4-2 lead but Lou Brock's home run tied the game and Wyatt received credit for the win when the Red Sox got four runs in the seventh.

He starred in baseball and basketball at Berlin (Conn.) High School and signed with the Pirates after his freshman year at the University of Connecticut. He played basketball as well as baseball in school and enjoys bowling. Gary is married and has a son.

WENZ, Frederick, Jr.PITCHER*"FIREBALL"

Born: August 26, 1941, Bound Brook, N. J. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 214 lbs. Brown hair, Blue eyes. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Somerville, N. J. Acquired: Signed by Scout Bobby Doerr, July, 1961, after being released by San Francisco Giant organization.

He has yet to make the majors after nine seasons in the minors but reports say this could be his year. Observers say he has a fine fastball and feel he can throw it by hitters in the majors, if he gets his chance.

Since he joined the Red Sox organization, he has struck out 584 men in 508 innings, impressive figures reminiscent of a former great Red Sox reliever, Dick Radatz. "Fireball" might just blaze his way into the Red Sox bullpen this season.

WYATT, Jonathan ThomasPITCHER*JOHN

Born: April 19, 1935, Chicago, Ill. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 205 lbs. Brown eyes, Black hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Kansas City, Mo. Acquired: Came from Kansas City in three-for-three trade along with Pitcher Roland Sheldon and Outfielder Jose Tartabull for Pitchers Ken Sanders and Guido Grilli and Outfielder Jim Gosger, June 14, 1966.

John had probably his strongest year in the majors last season as the team's number one relief pitcher came up with a 10-7 record, 2.61 ERA and 16 saves. He appeared in 60 of the 162 games and won the sixth game of the World Series, getting credit for the 8-4 victory over the Cardinals. A short relief man, Wyatt got first call in most close games and came through much as he had for the Athletics from 1962-64.

Originally signed with the Cardinals' organization after graduating from Hutchinson High in Buffalo, N.Y., where he starred in football, baseball and basketball. His 81 relief appearances in 1964 set a major league record at that time. Married.

YASTRZEMSKI, Carl MichaelOUTFIELDER*CARL

Born: Aug. 22, 1939, Southampton, L. I., N. Y. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 180 lbs. Black eyes, Brown hair. Bats: Left; Throws: Right. Home: Lynnfield Mass. Acquired: Signed by Scout Bots Nekola, Nov. 28, 1958.

What else needs to be said except that 1967 was the "Year of the Yaz." Carl won the Triple Crown, and although other players had better figures in accomplishing that same feat, no one ever deserved the league's Most Valuable Player Award more than did Carl. This is borne out by his overwhelming choice as Athlete of the Year from thousands of individuals in every sport imaginable.

The awards he won were not only for his .326 batting, 44 home runs and 121 RBIs but, probably more so, for the inspiration he provided in leading the team to its first pennant in 21 years. He won ball games in every way conceivable, always coming up with the clutch hit, making fantastic catches and cutting down runners with strong throws. He was the complete ball player in every sense of the word.

He won the next to the last game of the season with a three-run homer and smashed a two-run single the following day to tie the game as Boston defeated Minnesota twice for the pennant. He had seven hits in eight trips with six runs batted in. He continued his torrid hitting into the World Series, batting .400 with three home runs.

He has won three batting titles in his nine years in organized baseball and finished second twice. Along with his American League titles in 1967 and 63, he won the Carolina crown in 1959 and finished second in the American Association in 1960 and the American League in 1965. He has five times been awarded the Gold Glove for fielding.

He starred as an infielder in high school and signed during his freshman year at Notre Dame. He received his degree from Merrimac College in Massachusetts in the spring of 1967 and is employed with a printing firm in the Boston area in the off-season. Married and has three children.
